President's Corner

With new club officers in place we will continue to make improvements to our shooting facilities. New projects have been completed and a few more are in the works. Remember to respect the club property and watch your shot placement.

The club is also looking for members that are trained instructors to help with upcoming programs.

We're also looking for ideas for improvements or ways to help our club grow, please come to a board meeting and share your ideas or thoughts.

Thanks, Eric

Membership

As of October's board meeting we have 285 total members.

Outdoor keys have been mailed out to current members. If we find out keys have been copied, copied key person will be banned from the range for LIFE. The person letting his key be copied will be asked to leave. Any questions refer to Jim our new outdoor guy, his number is (937) 336-8840

*If you should see any unsafe actions from our members and their guest. Introduce yourself and show them your membership card and ask to see their membership card, everyone should have one!*

Remember there will be a $10 charge for anyone who's dues are over 30 days LATE.

Regards

Rudy Sperling
